144 Robertson's Complete Works, 1 vol. imp. 8vo.
145 Ellis' Embassy to China, 2 vols. 8vo. cf.
146 Memoirs of the Duke of Rovigo, (M. Savary,) written by Himself; illustrative of the History of the Emperor Napoleon. 4 vols. new cloth. 1828.

☞ These Memoirs are invaluable.

147 Cuvier's Animal Kingdom, arranged according to its Organization, being a description of Quadrupeds, Birds, Fishes, Insects, Shells, &c., by Cuvier and Latreille. Translated from the last French edition, with 4000 figures, mostly coloured, on 800 plates, 8 vols. hf. mor. 1837.

The above is the most scientific and general work upon the subject, and the only one upon Natural History suitable for a "Home Library."

148 Brown's New Zealand and its Aborigines; with an account of its Trade and Resources, and Advantages to Emigrants. cloth. 1845.
149 Journal of a Residence in Great Britain, from 1838 to 1841, by Jehangeer Nowrojee and Hirjeebhoy Merwanjee, of Bombay, Naval Architects. New cloth. 1841.

150 Atkinson's Expedition into Affghanistan; Notes and Sketches descriptive of the country. Map. 1842.

151 Allen's Diary of a March through Sinde and Affghanistan, with the Troops under the command of Gen. Sir W. Nott. (An interesting work,) with well executed plates, cloth, gilt. 1843.

152 Poston's Facts and Fictions, illustrative of Oriental Character. 3 vols. New cloth. 1844.

153 Memoirs of Don Juan Van Halen, comprising his Imprisonment in the Inquisition at Madrid, with his Escape, his Journey to Russia, his Campaign with the Army of the Caucasus, &c. Portrait. 2 vols. New cloth. 1830.

These papers present an extraordinary picture. In the nineteenth century, torture and the inquisition would seem things only to be read: here we find them in fearful activity.

154 Castlereagh's (Lord) Narrative of his Journey to Damascus, through Egypt, Nubia, Arabia Petræa, Palestine and Syria, plates, 2 vols. New cloth. 1847.

"A valuable and interesting work."

155 Halstead's Life of Margaret Beaufort, Countess of Richmond and Derby, and Mother of Henry VII. Foundress of Christ's and St. John's College, Oxford. Fine Portrait. New cloth. 1845.

156 History of the Assassins, derived from Oriental Sources, by Joseph Van Hammer. Translated from the German. New cloth. 1840.

A valuable memoir on a very interesting and little known subject.

157 Gerard's (Capt.) Account of Koonawur, in the Himalaya, &c. Large map. New cloth. 1841.

158 Lloyd and Gerard's Tours in the Himalaya. 2 vols. in 1. New cloth. 1846.

159 Secret Societies of the South of Italy, including particular Memoirs of the Carbonari. Portraits and plates. 1821.

160 Wallace's (Prof.) Dissertation on the True Age of the World, in which is determined the Chronology of the Period from the Creation to the Christian Era. New cloth. 1844.

This able work includes a review of the opinions of ancient and modern chronologers, including Usher, Hales, Clinton, and Cuninghame.

161 Court and Times of George II. and his Consort Queen Caroline, including Letters of the most celebrated Persons, addressed to the Viscountess Sundon, &c., now first published, from the originals, by Mrs. Thomson. Fine Portraits. 2 vols. 1850.

162 Carnes' Journal of a Tour through Switzerland and Italy. Cloth. 1845.

163 Dawson's Australia, its Present State; a Description of the Country, Manners and Customs of the Natives, &c. 1831.

164 History of the Russian Campaign of 1814 in France, translated from the original of A. Mikhailofsk-Danilefsky, Aid-de-Camp and Private Secretary of the Emperor Alexander, with Plans of the operations of the Army. Cloth. 1840.

165 Williams' (Rev. J.) Essays on the Geography of Ancient Asia, Intended partly to illustrate the Campaigns of Alexander, and the Anabasis of Xenophon. 2 maps. 1829.

166 Popular Tumults. 12mo. cloth.

167 Blakiston's (Capt.) Twelve Years' Military Adventure in three quarters of the Globe, in which are contained the Campaigns of the Duke of Wellington in India, Spain, and the South of France, 2 vols. 1840.

168 Campbell's (T. the Poet) Residence in Algiers, in a Series of Letters, with 11 folding plates of Scenery and Costume, 2 vols. new cloth. 1845.

These admirable letters furnish us with by far the most interesting and picturesque sketches of Algiers and the adjacent districts we have yet met with.

169 Stark's Elements of Natural History, adapted to the present State of the Science, containing the Generic Characters of nearly the whole of the Animal Kingdom, and Description of the Principal Species. Plates. 2 vols. 1828.

170 Herodotus' History, translated from the text of Gaisford, with Illustrative and Critical Notes, and complete Geographical Index, by Laurent. Maps. 2 vols. cloth. Oxford, 1846.

171 Adams' Exposition of the Four Gospels, edited by the Rev. A. Westoby. 2 vols. cloth. 1837.

172 Morgan's (Lady) Italy, a Journal of a Residence in that Country, exhibiting a view of the State of Society and Manners, Arts, Literature, and Public Institutions, with Anecdotes of eminent Characters. 3 vols. 1824.

Lady Morgan wields the wand of the Cicerone with almost an enchantress' power. Description, remark, character, anecdote, incident, mingle in rapid and sprightly succession.

173 Memoirs of Prince Charles Stuart, the Young Pretender, with Notices of the Rebellion of 1745, by C. L. Klose. Fine portrait. 2 vols. cloth. 1846.

This work may justly claim the credit of being the fullest and most authentic narrative of this great era in English History. It has all the interest of a Romance.

174 Brees' Guide and Description of New Zealand. 54 beautiful engravings of the Scenery, Buildings, Manners, and Customs, &c., of the Country. 1850.

175 Life of Sir Joshua Reynolds, comprising original anecdotes of his Distinguished Contemporaries, by J. Northcote, R. A. Portraits and plates. 2 vols. 1819.

176 Memoirs of the Life, Writings, and Opinions of the Rev. Samuel Parr, LL.D., with Biographical Notices of many of his Friends, Pupils and Contemporaries, by the Rev. W. Field. Portraits. 2 vols. New cloth. 1828.

A very interesting work, introducing anecdotes of almost every distinguished literary man of the early part of the present century.

177 Memoirs of Theobald Wolfe Tone, written by Himself; comprising a complete Journal of his Exertions for the Liberation of Ireland, and an Account of the Rebellion of 1798; with Selections from his Diary. Edited by his son. Port. 2 vols. cloth. 1837.

178 Life of Sir Edward Coke, Lord Chief Justice of England in the Reign of James I., with Memoirs of his Contemporaries, by C. W. Johnson. Portrait. 2 vols. new cloth. 1845.

A very valuable work, illustrating one of the most important periods in English history.

179 Courts and Times of James I. and Charles I., a series of Historical and Confidential Letters, containing a Detail of the Public Transactions and Events in Great Britain during that period, with a variety of Particulars not mentioned by our Historians. 4 handsome vols. new cloth. 1848.

"These valuable papers are transcribed from the Originals in the British Museum, State Paper Office, and Private Collections, by Thomas Birch, D.D., Author of 'Memorials of the Reign of Queen Elizabeth,' Editor of Thurloe's Collection of State Papers," &c., and are now first published from his MMS. bequeathed to the British Museum.

217 Le Musée Frangais Napoleon, or Collection of 355 superb Line Engravings, from the Chefs-d'œuvre of Painting and Sculpture that formed the Gallery of the Louvre during the Reign of Napoleon, with Historical Introductions and Critical and Explanatory Remarks, also the History and Essay on the various Schools of Painting, 4 vols. imperial folio.

This magnificent collection of engravings owes its origin to the Emperor Napoleon, and was undertaken when the resources of the whole of Europe were under his command, and when the Gallery of the Louvre was the acknowledged emporium of the Fine Arts of the civilized world. The design of combining in one splendid series the unexampled number of 355 line engravings, from the finest paintings and statues in the world, the magnitude of the undertaking may be estimated from the fact that the execution of the engravings alone cost seventy-five thousand pounds sterling, or $360,000.

218 Musée Royale Napoleon (le,) or a Collection of 167 Line Engravings, from the Gallery of the Louvre, 2 vols. imperial folio.

The Musée Royale was intended as a supplement to the Musée Français, and contains some of the chefs-d'œuvre of Painting and Sculpture, among which are "La Vierge au Donataire," the "Holy Family," "Jane d'Arragon," and "Pope Leo X.," all by Raphael, as well as many first rate pictures by other masters.

The Musée Royale was published in forty numbers, forming two volumes, each number containing four Engravings, accompanied with critical notes from the able pens of MM. Guizot, Visconti and Clarac. The original proprietors of this undertaking expended upon this series of Drawings no less a sum than 60,000 francs, and the engravers were paid, for their portion of the labour, 200,000 francs, the largest sum ever expended in the execution of any publication connected with art. Amongst the engravers are the celebrated names Raphael Morgan, Richomme, Foster, Classens, Muller, Audoin, Schirvonetti, Gandolfi, Massard, Girardet, Chatillon, Bartollozzi, &c., &c. The Musée Français and Royale are undoubtedly the finest collection of Engravings ever published.
